

THE CENTRAL RECORD

PURE RELIGION, UNTARNISHED DEMOCRACY AND GOOD GOVERNMENT.

TWENTY FOURTH YEAR.

LANCASTER, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1913.

NUMBER 27.

It is now about time to look around for a New

HEATING STOVE.

We have just gotten in a full line of new

Cooking Stoves and Heaters.

So come to our store and look them over before you buy as we think it will save you money.

We sell the famous Avery Farming Tools and the Owensboro Wagon.

CONN BROTHERS.

Live and Let Live Folks

$502.00

worth of premiums given away absolutely

FREE

December 24th. Come in and let us tell you how to secure them.

Complete Line of New Fall Goods

Quality High, prices low.

H. T. LOGAN

Saturday was surely one BIG DAY in Lancaster.

There was food a plenty and then some for the enormous crowd.

We move that The Fall Celebration on October 4th be made an annual affair.

The Moose band can make good music and came in for many compliments.

The merchants almost to a man express satisfaction at the result of Saturday's "Big Day".

No liquor in evidence Saturday and the crowd was orderly and quiet and everyone seemed to enjoy the day.

Joe Cabbell Ramsey who won the Record pony is bedding the little fellow on a mattress. That is sure taking care of him right.

The square presented a "breaking up housekeep" Sunday morning, but it has been cleaned again and we hope all will aid in keeping it so.

The crowd was variously estimated from two to four thousand. It is hard to judge, but our judgment would be that there were about 2500 people here last Saturday.

The deplorable accident of last Saturday which cost little Gilbert East his life, had absolutely no connection with the celebration being held in Lancaster on that day, although it threw a damper over the spirits of many who were

Lancaster merchants while they reaped a liberal reward from the display of last Saturday, will yet feel the effects of it in the future, they succeeded in demonstrating to the people of the county that they had the goods and it was not necessary to go away from home to obtain what they needed, that it was right here for them and at prices more reasonable than in adjoining towns or from mail order houses.

Stop neglecting to return borrowed books. Stop indulging in more than 100 pounds of self-content to the square inch. Stop supposing that the world could not get on well without you. Stop looking at the dark side of life. Stop furnishing your friends with the minute particulars of your bodily ailments. Stop taking pessimistic views of men, things and the theory of the universe. Stop working too hard.
Stop working not hard enough. Stop writing to famous people for their autographs. Stop procrastinating.
Stop sending to newspapers "Something I've just dashed off and haven't stopped to correct."

Battle of Ballots

Now Matter of History.

The Central Record's Big Prize Contest closed last Saturday afternoon after one of the hardest fought in the history of voting ballots in this part of the state. It was the most successful contest ever put on by the Record and resulted in a most substantial increase in its circulation. The rivalry of the contest was animated and until the judges had made their final count, it was impossible to predict to whom victory would fall.

We, the undersigned, named to act as judges and make the final count in the Central Record's Big Prize Contest, were present and took charge of the ballot box at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 4th, and immediately proceeded to count the votes. The counting was completed at a late hour Saturday afternoon and the result made known to the management of the contest. The figures given below are the result of our count.

R. T. Embry, W. F. Champ, J. W. Elmore, Judges of the Record Contest.

| | |
|---|-----------------|
| Winner—The Capital Prize, a pony and outfit | 7,298,800 votes |
| Winners of the District Prizes... District No. 1. | |
| First Prize—A diamond ring, Lillie May Jones | 1,942,900 votes |
| Second Prize—An Elgin Watch, Miss Della Rice Hughes. | 1,485,400 " |
| Third Prize—A Ruby Ring, Christine Politte | 1,280,600 " |
| Fourth Prize—A Cut Glass Fruit Bowl, Mayme Lee Marsee | 807,400 " |
| District No. 2. | |
| First Prize—A Diamond Ring, Miss Lillie May Sutton | 3,101,200 " |
| Second Prize—A Diamond Ring, Judith James Daniels | 2,899,100 " |
| Third Prize—An Elgin Watch, Christine Prewitt, | 1,856,900 " |
| Fourth Prize—An Elgin Watch, Inn Scott | 1,275,300 " |
| Fifth Prize—A Ruby Ring, Anna Blanks, | 1,103,200 " |
| Sixth Prize—A Ruby Ring, Ruth Lane, | 1,019,100 " |
| Seventh Prize—A Cut Glass Fruit Bowl, Bulah Sutton | 748,800 " |
| Eighth Prize—A Cut Glass Fruit Bowl, Nellie Beazley | 648,800 " |

Baptist Ladies Aid will have an exchange at W. B. Bell's store every Saturday. Everything good to eat.

Tobacco is about all housed and the farmer is busily engaged in sowing wheat and cutting corn.

Most of the merchants are so well pleased with Fall Fashion Day, they want to make it permanent and have such days semi-annual.

Capt. Am Bourne who cried the Kuhlmale sale at Lowell Tuesday, reported a good crowd and house furniture sold well. 1 mare for $161, Store house and lot $1,000, about $500, worth of goods at 60 per cent. Fixtures
$180, barn and lot $385, coal scales $25. Am sells for the high dollar and always gets it.

Late But Plucky.

Little Miss Christine Prewitt, the seven year old daughter of Mr. Alex Prewitt of Hackley, who won one of the Record's prizes in the recent contest, certainly deserves a great measure of credit for the plucky fight she made. Christine only entered the contest three weeks before it's close, but during the short time she was in she certainly made it interesting for those in the lists against her, and had she had just a little earlier start she would have been a strong contender for the pony and cart. If all of her endeavors in the future are marked with the same energy and success as was this, her first battle, she is certainly of a successful career. She surely has the congratulations and well wishes of the Record.

Rankin-Rousseau.

Miss Mary Margaret Rankin and Mr. William Rousseau were married at the home of the bride's parents on the old Danville Pike at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, and left immediately following the ceremony for Danville, where they boarded the train for their bridal journey, which will include a visit to relatives in Tuscola Ill., a short stay in Kansas City and other Western cities, the end of the journey being their future home in Phoenix, Ariz. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few close friends being present; the ceremony was performed by Rev. S. H.
Politoff of the Methodist church, in his most impressive style. The bride wore a handsome blue tailor made gown, while the groom was arrayed in the conventional black.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rankin, and is one of the most popular girls who ever left Lancaster. She was graduated from the Lancaster High School, where she was popular alike with teachers and schoolmates, after which she matriculated at Madison Female Institute at Richmond, graduating from that establishment last year.
Her many accomplishments, lovable disposition and great popularity combined to make of her a helpmate of whom any man might feel justly proud, and Mr. Rousseau is indeed to be congratulated upon the winning of such a bride.

The groom is a prosperous young ranchman of Phoenix Ariz. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Rousseau, formerly of Somerset Kv., and is a great nephew of Gen. Rousseau, the noted Federal General of Civil War fame.

Mr. Rousseau, though comparatively a young man, has succeeded in winning his way in a very substantial manner in the far western home of his adoption, and he certainly exhibited great wisdom in returning to the land of his birth to secure a life partner to share his fortunes through life.
The congratulations of a host of well wishes and friends all over this section of Kentucky will follow Mr. and Mrs.
Rousseau to their distant home, in which the Record heartily joins.

The Central Record's Big Prize Contest closed last Saturday afternoon after one of the hardest fought in the history of voting ballots in this part of the state. It was the most successful contest ever put on by the Record and resulted in a most substantial increase in its circulation. The rivalry of the contest was animated and until the judges had made their final count, it was impossible to predict to whom victory would fall.

Now Matter of History.

HARDWARE

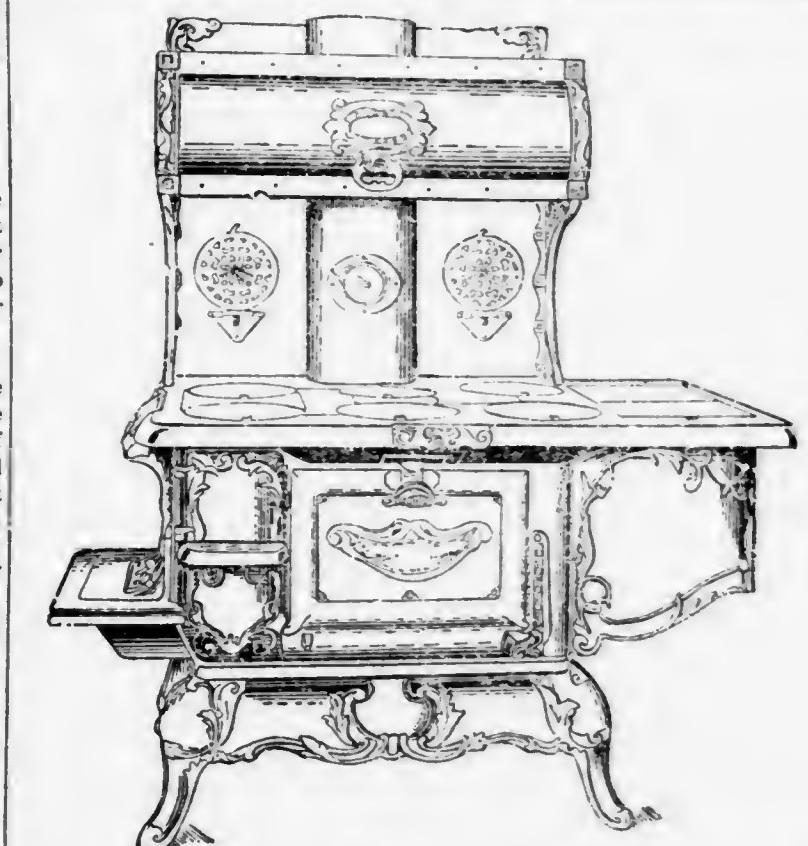

IF YOU WANT HARDWARE
WE SELL IT.

TEN FLOORS

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

HASELDEN BROS.

Make our store your Headquarters.

If it is a Range or Cooking or Heating stove you want get my prices, I will save you money.

W. J. Romans.

L. G. Davidson is on a fishing trip and Alex Doty Jr. is over run with work.
They promise an interesting advertising in this space next week. Watch for it.

STOP LOOK READ

This Two Horse Studebaker Wagon and Three other Premiums Given away FREE at my store Saturday, Dec 20, 1913

1st PRIZE--One Standard make two-horse Studebaker Wagon. 2nd PRIZE--One box containing 100 pounds Arbuckles Coffee. 3rd PRIZE--300 pound barrel Granulated Sugar. 4th PRIZE--200 pound barrel Patent Flour

My stock Clothing and Shoes for Fall Now Complete.

JAS. W. SMITH

THE CENTRAL RECORD
INCORPORATED.
ISSUED WEEKLY. $1.00 A YEAR.

J. E. ROBINSON, EDITOR.
R. L. ELKIN, BUSINESS MANAGER.

Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

Member Kentucky Press Association
and Eighth District Publishers League.

Lancaster, Ky., October 10, 1913.

Rates For Political Announcements
For Precinct and City Offices ... $ 5.00
For County Offices 10.00
For State and District Offices 15.00
For Calls, per line10
For Cards, per line10
For all publications in the interest of individuals or expression of individual views, per line10
Obituaries, per line05

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For State Senator.
CHARLES F. MONTGOMERY.
Of Casey County.

For Representative.
J. R. MOUNT.

For County Judge.
CLAYTON A. ARNOLD.

For Sheriff.
C. A. ROBINSON.

For County Court Clerk.
J. W. HAMILTON.

For County Attorney.
GREEN CLAY WALKER.

For Jailer.
DAVE ROSS.

For Assessor.
DAVE C. SANDERS.

For School Superintendent.
MISS JENNIE HIGGINS.

For Magistrate.
1st District.
JOHN N. WHITE.

2nd District.
LOGAN ISON.

3rd District.
JOHN S. HAM.

We are authorized to announce the following candidates for city offices.

For Police Judge.
E. W. HARRIS.
J. P. PRATHER.

There is a possibility of the administration of President Woodrow Wilson not being a success, but we are inclined to the belief that there is scarcely the probability of such a happening. His every undertaking so far has been fraught with well meaning, "the greatest good to the greatest number", liberally interspersed with keen perception and showing an intimate acquaintance with the needs of the country and the subject with which he grappled. His latest achievement was the tariff law, a subject that has been a thorn in the side of every administration since the establishment of commercial relation between this and foreign countries. The efforts of Mr. Wilson and his associates who assisted in the formulation of the measure gives flattering promises of success.

It is claimed for the newly created law that it will materially lessen the cost of living, and as the very best way to reach the heart of the American citizen is through his pocketbook, if the hopes and predictions of these wise men who have done what they hope and believe is for the best, there need be no uneasiness as to the future of the cause of Democracy in this country for many years to come.

Just what the outcome will be, whether or not the revised tariff bill will do what is claimed for it, is problematical. The results will of a necessity be slow in making their appearance, but we are firm in our belief that they will surely materialize and very much to the advantage of our people. We can but wait patiently the result and in the meantime we are unshaken in our faith in the wisdom and far sightedness of President Woodrow Wilson.

That the Merchants Opening Day held in Lancaster on last Saturday was a success in so far as attaining the object sought, exploiting the goods and promoting the home trade, is absolutely undeniable. There is not a merchant in the town but must confess that he was benefited by the holding of this little celebration as it might be called for their benefit. Nor is the reaping of the harvest yet complete, many people who came in to look around ascertained just what to be had in Lancaster, and at what prices and later along when they are ready to buy, will come in and patronize their home merchants.

Lancaster has been somewhat behind in the matter of advertising home business, and this latest exploit fully demonstrates the fact that "advertising pays."

It has been suggested, and very wisely, that this event be made, not an annual, but a semi-annual affair, that such an event be held in the spring and fall of each year, and for the purpose of financing such a scheme and in order that it may not appear to fall too heavily upon the shoulders of those interested, it has been suggested that an organization be at once formed, something along the lines of a Commercial Club, with regular dues, and these dues will in a very short time, though small of themselves, amount to a sufficient sum to pay the expense of providing attractions which will bring such a crowd as was here last Saturday to the city twice each year, at such a time as may be deemed advisable by the merchants themselves, and which will be greatest to their advantage. This proposition is well worth consideration, and it would be a splendid idea to form just such an organization without delay, and by the coming of spring and the arrival of new goods there will be a fund sufficient already accumulated to give a celebration equal to if not greater than the one just held.

This suggestion is well worth your consideration Mr. Merchant, and we believe it would be a wise move for you to get busy at once and organize a "Merchants Publicity Association", or something similar, having this object in view.

There has been a great deal of talk about detaining or deporting Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, when she arrives in America. The emigration authorities, and Washington itself, seem to be of several minds in regard to the matter. Mrs. Pankhurst may be classified as an "undesirable citizen", guilty of bad conduct in her own country and therefore ineligible to enter the United States. For our part we would like to see her come in and try some of her brick throwing and house burning here. One thing she will find out in a short time, and that is the methods by which she gained notoriety in England are not in favor with the women of this country and certainly will not be countenanced by the men.

The school is indeed an honor to our efficient County Superintendent Miss Higgins, the Board of trustees and to the faithful progressive men and women of the neighborhood, who have so loyally stood back of it all with their influence and their means.

have no fear, but on the other hand we think it will do her good to associate with women who have won the ball in eleven states with ways and means that are peaceful rather than by force. Perhaps American women will give her a few lessons in sweet reasonableness, the use of logic and persuasion, rather than of the strong arm. Mrs. Pankhurst may or may not be desirable but we want her to come for we want to show her that the great overwhelming sanity of this country, is able to throw off all "evil humors" just as a healthy body can resist the inroads of bacilli; just as we resisted the influence of Emma Goldman, John Most and a few others.

The Clark county grand jury before its final adjournment returned eight indictments against as many of the citizens of the county for "bribery", the basis of the indictments being the traffic in votes at the recent August primary election. These indictments were directly the result of the fearless stand taken by Judge James M. Benton and his strenuous instruction to the grand jury, which resulted in one of the most prominent citizens of the county being fined and incarcerated for refusal to tell what he knew in regard to the buying and selling of votes or the furnishing of funds for that purpose.

The result of the rigid probe being made by Judge Benton will doubtless have the effect of starting similar proceedings in other districts of the state, and there is no telling just where the matter will end, but it is sincerely hoped that the ultimate result will be the eradication from the entire state of this nefarious practice, and that elections in the near future will be entirely free from undue influence and will be conducted along entirely different lines from what has been the custom in many localities in the past.

It can't rain until it frosts and it can't frost until it rains, so we are in a terrible fix.

Phoenix Hotel Cup Coffee.

The Woolfolk Coffee Company, of Lexington, furnished all the coffee that was used Fall Fashion Day. This company added many admiring friends to its large list of patrons, for every one that took a cup of it was heard to remark, "well this is the best coffee I ever drank".

Miss Coyle, of Lexington, made and demonstrated the coffee and she may well be termed "Queen of the coffee urn", for she can make better coffee and serve more people in a given time than any one we ever saw.

The business of this firm is constantly increasing, owing to the fact that the "Phoenix Hotel Cup Coffee" is the very best goods that can be had. Mr. Jeff Dunn, an ex-Garrardite, is one of the head of this popular firm, and applies the Golden Rule to every transaction, and is "there with the goods" whenever the occasion demands.

Anspicions Opening Of Buena Vista Graded School.

The Buena Vista Consolidated School opened under the most auspicious conditions Monday Oct, 6th, promptly at 8:30 o'clock. The handsome new transportation wagons drove into the school yard loaded with happy faced boys and girls.

While no special program had been arranged a number of the patrons had gathered to show their appreciation of the great educational awakening in Garrard county.

Dr. E. H. Pearce conducted the devotional exercises and gave a most inspiring talk. Mr. Isaac Hackley the newly elected principal, made a pleasing talk in which he won all the students for his friends as well as secured the hearty co-operation of the patrons who were present.

The school is indeed an honor to our efficient County Superintendent Miss Higgins, the Board of trustees and to the faithful progressive men and women of the neighborhood, who have so loyally stood back of it all with their influence and their means.

It Helps Appearances.

Lancaster merchants are growing liberal with the paint brush and several store fronts are being newly decorated, all of which adds materially to the appearance of the town.

Ed. C. Gaines Indisposed.

Under the advice of his physician, Mr. E. C. Gaines our popular insurance agent, is spending a few days at Crab Orchard. His friends are hoping for his speedy recovery and return. Mr. Ira Holtzclaw can be found at Mr. Gaines office and will be glad to accommodate you along the line of insurance.

Judge Walker Buys Home.

Judge Lewis L. Walker has purchased Mr. F. G. Hurt's home on Water street and will move into it as soon as some improvements can be made. The price paid was $2500. Mr. Hurt will move this week to the residence on Hill street recently purchased of Mr. J. F. Robison.

Distance Annihilators.

Messrs James Hilton and Charles Zanone have just purchased two Harley-Davidson motorcycles and are prepared to annihilate distance and any other small obstacle that might by chance get in their way.

The machines were purchased through Mr. Bristol Conn, of Danville, and are said to be one of the best on the market.

Kentucky Red Berkshire Association Incorporated.

Articles of Incorporation for the "Kentucky Red Berkshire Association" of Stanford have been filed at Frankfort with a capital stock of $300. The names of Messrs A. K. and Woods Walker and J. G. Burnside appear among the names of the incorporators. The object of the Association is to "Promote the breeding of Red Berkshire hogs."

MR. JOHN B. PARKS.

Banker, Farmer, Stockman and Elegant Gentleman, Formerly of Garrard County Dies at His Home in Richmond.

Mr. John B. Parks died at his home in Richmond Ky., last Friday afternoon after a lingering illness of hardening of the arteries, and his remains were laid at rest in the Richmond cemetery on Sunday afternoon. He was 69 years of age. Until a few years ago when he was forced by failing health to give up the active life of a farmer, Mr. Parks was a resident of Garrard county living at Paint Lick. He had a host of friends throughout the county, many of whom have made frequent pilgrimages to his bedside during his recent illness.

Mr. Parks' death marks the passing of another one of Garrard county's noted followers of the chase; intimate friend and for many years the near neighbor of the famous "Walker Bros", two of whom have crossed to the Great Beyond in recent years, he had gained world wide fame through his love of the sport and his connection with the National Fox Hunters Association.

Mr. Parks' wife preceded him to the grave was a Miss Wallace, a sister of Mrs. Ann Robinson, of Lancaster.

Mr. Parks served three years with the Sixth Kentucky Cavalry during the Civil War. He had served as president of the National Fox Hunters' Association. He was a director of the Citizens' National Bank. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bolton Kilgore, of San Angelo, Texas, and Miss Jennie Parks, of this city, and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Nannie P. Smith, Mrs. W. W. Watts, Mrs. Nannie P. Embry and James B. Parks, and a half-brother and sister, S. S. Parks and Mrs. James Wilmore, all of Richmond.

A great number of people of this city and the Paint Lick section at-tended the funeral.

We are receiving daily all kinds of new can goods and evaporated fruits. Come in to see us and let us show you what we have. W. B. Ball.

Tobacco Crop Better Than Anticipated.

The oft repeated prediction of the Record that Garrard county will have fully a 75 per cent tobacco crop this year seems certain of fulfillment. In calculating the crop every pound must be taken into consideration, regardless of its character. The recent rains and the favorable weather following added many hundreds of pounds to that part of the weed remaining in the field; plants that were abandoned and thought would make nothing under favorable conditions, expanded and turned out a very fair article. The crop while not up to the standard of previous years in quality is upon the whole fairly good, some of it excellent in quality, made. The price paid was $2500. Mr. Hurt will move this week to the residence on Hill street recently purchased of Mr. J. F. Robison.

Record's Contest Closed Last Saturday

Afternoon, The Prizes Were Awarded, And, We Believe The Result Gave General Satisfaction.

The Record's Big Contest closed on Saturday afternoon and the prizes were awarded to the successful contestants, and from the various expressions of opinion which we have heard, we are constrained to the belief that the result gave general satisfaction.

Our aim during the conduct of this affair has been that it should be absolutely fair, that it could and should not be said that any one candidate should have any unfair advantage over another one. To this end we have been studious in our efforts to have all connected with the Record office to know just as little as possible about the contest, leaving the entire management of the contest in the hands of Messrs Potts and Chaffin, both of whom were wholly disinterested and whom we knew to be absolutely fair and honest. How well our efforts were prolific of fruit is to be seen by the general satisfaction expressed at the outcome. When the closing time came and the count was to be made, we chose three men whom we felt had the esteem and confidence of the entire community, and left in their hands the stupendous work of counting the ballots. Messrs W. F. Champ, R. T. Entry and J. W. Elmore spent several hours over this arduous task, and when their duties were performed, there was nothing left to be done except to announce the result and distribute the prizes.

While the Contest, from a financial point of view, was not a great success to the Record, yet we are well pleased with the result, we have succeeded in adding very materially to our subscription list, bringing the list well up with the lists of other newspapers in its class in Central Kentucky, and this of course means something to us, even more than the satisfaction of knowing of the increase.

To those who names who have been added to our lists as new subscribers as well as to our old friends who have long been with us, we desire to say that we shall exert our every effort to give you a readable paper, we shall endeavor to chronicle just as carefully as possible the news of the town and county, and the world at large in condensed form, in fact we expect to give to our readers everything in the news line which we think would interest you, and to improve upon our service continually in every manner possible.

We wish to thank sincerely everyone who in any manner contributed to the success of the contest, and to our personal thanks we wish to add the thanks of the little contestants whose hearts, thanks to your kindness and assistance were made glad by the distribution of the handsome prizes.

The House of Quality.
Lancaster, Kentucky.

DEPLORABLE ACCIDENT.

Little Gilbert East's Life Crushed Out Beneath The Wheels Of A Wagon On Last Saturday.

Gilbert, the little six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter East of Buckeye, had his little life crushed out beneath the wheels of a two horse wagon on last Saturday. The little fellow had come to town with his uncle, Barnett, the fifteen year old son of Mr. Owen East of Buckeye, on a two horse wagon. They came for some cement and seed rice and after making their purchases started for home. When near the farm of Dr. J. B. Klemard on the Buckeye pike, near the foot of the "town hill", Barnett descended from the wagon and went across the fence at the side of the road for some purpose, leaving little Gilbert on the seat holding the lines. The restlessness of the mules in jerking their heads probably jerked the little fellow from the seat and the mules moved forward the front wheel of the wagon passing across the chest of the helpless little boy, and before his horror stricken uncle could reach him the little body was so crushed as to place him beyond recovery. A young man passing gathered him in his arms and hurried to town with him in his buggy, taking him to the home of Mr. J. D. Guiley, where medical aid was summoned and everything possible was done, but so seriously was the little body crushed that there was absolutely no hope and he died within an hour after being taken into the house. The parents were at once summoned, and the grief of the heart broken mother at the sudden death of her little son was distressing. For a while she could not be comforted, and it was some time before the kindly ladies who surrounded her in their efforts to be of assistance, could persuade her to leave the little body to be prepared for burial.

The remains were taken to the parental home near Buckeye on Saturday afternoon and on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock all that was mortal, the little bruised and broken body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Buckeye. The accident was an unusually pathetic one and the hearts of all who knew of it goes out to the grief stricken mother and father in their sudden and severe loss.

Fresh oysters, celery and cranberries, at Theo Currey's.

Advise Us If You Do Not Get Your Pay.

A great number of our subscribers are giving subscriptions for the Record, a necessity cause more or less money for a while, and if you are not coming to your office to bring in your money, advise us, or if you are not coming to the wrong office, if you will do so, we will be glad to meet you at your office to receive your payment.

The Original "Handy Man".

Capt. Ambrose Barnes, the original "handy man" of the record, died Saturday morning. Barnes had been handling the big crossbow for a long time, and when he was shot in the eye, he was taken to the hospital, where he died. Barnes had been a favorite with the public for many years, and was known as the "original handy man".

The matrimonial pot is now boiling merrily at least in one case. J. V. Hamilton reports a thriving business along that line. The following secured license:

Nannie Baker age 21 of Lancaster and Harvey Brock 22 of C. W. Greer were married at the home of the bride in this city on Sept. 12th. Rev. P. C. Williams officiating. The bride is the daughter of J. W. Baker the local grocer and the groom is a young Lancaster country boy.

May Howard 21 and Jim Gandy 20, both of the Buckeye section were married by Rev. P. C. Williams on the 12th inst.

Florence Graw, 16 and Franklin H. Williams, 18, were married in Richmond on the 1st by Rev. Williams. The bride is the daughter of the late George Graw, 60, and lived at Blackey. She is a beautiful and charming young lady and her husband is a son of S. H. Hickey, of Lancaster and is a prosperous young farmer.

Woodson Brock, 36

Easy to Criticise.

It is easy to sit in the sunshine,
And talk to the man in the shade.
It is easy to float in a well-trimmed boat,
And point out the places to wade.
But once we pass into the shadows,
We murmur and fret and frown
And our length from back we shout for a plank.
Or throw up our hands and go down.
It is easy to sit in your carriage
And counsel the man on foot;
But get down and walk and you'll change your talk,
As you feel the peg in your boot.
It is easy to tell the toiler,
How best he can carry his pack;
But no one can rate a laden's weight,
Until it has been on his back.
The up-curbed mouth of pleasure,
Can preach of sorrow's worth;
But give it a sip, and a wryer lip,
Was never made on earth.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox

MARKSBURY.

Miss Georgia Dunn sold a yearling calf for $27.50.

Mr. Pope sold a weanling mule to A. P. Cobb for $75.

Rev. J. W. Mahan began a series of meetings with the Mt. Hebron church.

Mrs. J. W. Mahan who has been confined to her bed is able to be out again.

Mr. W. C. Marksbury left Monday to be gone two weeks to visit the family of W. T. Dye of Middleburgh.

Mrs. Stallard Hill of Danville has just concluded a visit to her mother Mrs. Kelly Hough of Lexington.

Robt. Fox sold a bunch of hogs to V. A. Lear for $35. Jno Pruitt also sold to same party a bunch of hogs for $35.

Mr. J. W. Swope wife and son H. B. Swope who have been visiting his sister Mrs. Wilford Dye of Middleburgh.

Miss Bayne West who came here to be the guest of Miss Susan Sutton for several days will visit other friends her old home while here.

Mr. Burk was badly injured one morning last week when the horse she was driving became frightened at the shafts flying upward and ran throwing her to the ground. She was carried to the home of Mr. Ben Swope the nearest place where she still remains. As a result of the fall her left arm was broken near the shoulder blade her skull was fractured with a wound on the back of head, besides her whole body was considerably bruised. The colored girl with her only received slight injury.

BUCKEYE.

Mr John Bogie was in Frankfort the first of the week.

Miss Barbara Gulley is visiting relatives at Kirksville.

Mr. Win Brown is attending teachers Institute at Danville.

Oscar Ray Carter is improving from and absent on the knee.

Mrs. Jennie Broadus returned to Louisville for treatment.

Quite a number from here attended court in Richmond Monday.

Miss Agnes Miles has been the guest of Miss Nancy Long of Madison Co.

Miss Emma Sanders of Madison Co has been the guest of Miss Leota Ray.

A C Miller sold to some Lexington parties 17 butcher cattle at 5 and 5 cents.

Mrs Jane Kannata arrived Monday from Oklahoma for a visit to her sister Mrs Hiram Ray.

Mr and Mrs Forest Stepp and Dr and Mrs J S Gilbert motored to Lexington Wednesday.

Rev D M DeMoss returned to Louisville last week where he entered the Theological Seminary.

Mrs Hugh Miller of Oklahoma who has been visiting her parents Dr and Mrs G M Hendren has returned home.

A little boy arrived at the home of Mr and Mrs Arthur Noel, September 30th and has been christened Robert Hunter.

Mrs Iva Teater was called last week to the bedside of her little daughter Lucille, who is very ill at a hospital in Lexington.

Mr Dave Vaughn a citizen of Madison Co, died at the home of Roscoe Whitaker Sunday night Sept 28th. After short services at the grave conducted by Rev DeMoss the remains were interred in the cemetery at this place.

The infant son of Mr and Mrs Henry Dunn died Sunday morning. Age nineteen months. The angel came and took his precious little soul to the arms of Jesus who so tenderly blessed them while on earth. After some very appropriate remarks made by Rev J. W. Beagle, the remains were laid to rest in a sweet shady spot in the cemetery at this place.

A very, very sad death occurred Saturday afternoon. While returning from Lancaster with one of Mr Owen East's sons little Gilbert, age about six years, son of Mr and Mrs Walter East fell from a wagon which ran over his little body and caused his death. After calling for his mother and father perhaps to tell them goodby, the death angel bore the sweet little spirit to that heavenly home above to await father, mother, sister and brother. After funeral services which were conducted by Rev J. W. Beagle, the body was laid to rest in the cemetery here.

JOE CABELL RAMSEY.

Card Of Thanks.

I desire to extend my sincere thanks to my legion of friends in Lancaster, Garrard county and elsewhere who assisted me so liberally in the recent Contest which enabled me to secure the beautiful pony and cart, and I assure them one and all that my gratitude is not exceeded by the pleasure of having the prize.

Joseph Cabell Ramsey.

The Record's Big Contest Now A Matter Of History.

The Central Record's Big Contest is now a matter of history. The official standing tells the story of the great race in which the balloting ended at 2 P.M. last Saturday, when the judges opened the ballot box and commenced the work of counting the votes. The checking of the records was rather a tedious task but the systematic manner in which the judges conducted the count, was so thorough that there was no chance for an error. The votes were counted on an adding machine and the results were checked and rechecked so that they would be sure to get the correct standing of each contestant.

One of the most interesting features of the contest was the friendliness of the rivalry between the contestants and this good will was even in stronger evidence as the announcement of the winners was made.

All the candidates have been gainers even those whose names do not appear on the list of winners. They have increased their circle of acquaintances and have cemented the bonds of friendship even closer than when attending friends placed their names before the public as a candidate for a prize.

Among the congratulations received by the fortunate were those of the candidates who were in the race against them, personal friends in many cases, who had come to the end lack.

LILLIE MAY SUTTON.

contest for all deserve to win one of the coveted prizes, and it hopes those who did win will enjoy them to the utmost. Progress is the watchword of the Central Record and it goes forward in circulation, news and advertising. The management has gathered fresh inspiration for the work before it, and will keep improving the paper week by week, while the wonderful increase in circulation secured during the contest, it now offers one of the best advertising mediums among the weekly newspapers in Kentucky.

Can't Play "Hokey".

The Messenger is requested to call attention of both parents and pupils to the fact that truant law will be closely enforced in this city. Better see that the urchins are in school and thus save trouble. —Danville Messenger.

The Womans Club

(Edited By The Womans Club)

The Woman's Club Library announces that one hundred books have just been received, including those already in the library, there are now about six hundred to select from.

The library will open Friday Oct. 10th at 2:30 o'clock. Membership cards on sale at library, $1.00 entitling any one member of a family to draw a book each week for one year; other new books will be added from time to time.

Card Of Thanks.

Had I been allowed to choose from the prizes offered in the recent Central Record contest, I would have chosen the handsome diamond ring which I was awarded, and I am fully aware of the fact that I possess it only through the untiring efforts of my many friends and I desire to thank them all for their kindly assistance.

Lillie May Sutton.

Landrum Loves Lancaster.

Louis Landrum admits this soft impeachment. Says the Danville Messenger: "While we are no spring chicken, and have our second set of stone teeth, yet we are not too old to enjoy a circus. Nor do we ever expect to live long enough to forget those happy days spent in the best town on earth." The last reference is to Lancaster, for which we forgive him, as he has evidently forgotten the delights of living in the capital of Madison — Richmond Climax.

When The Boy Is A Problem.

The high school period — including the years from fourteen to eighteen — is the most critical period in the life of the boy. President G. Stanley Hall of Clark College calls it the age of temporary insanity, others style it the fool period, the era of the birth of the will. At this time says a teacher, an active fermentation occurs that may produce either wine or vinegar." It is a time of restlessness, of egotism, of unbelief; in short, of vagabondage. The broad-shouldered, husky lad, with the strength and passions of a man and the judgment of a boy, scorns all advice from his elders, although never in his life did he stand in such need of it. The Germans have a way of expressing the period from fourteen to eighteen. They call it the Wander-Jahre. And truly for many of the three million of American boys at the age of adolescence these years are literally wander years."

Card Of Thanks.

I am the proud possessor of a hand-some diamond ring, one of the prizes offered by the Central Record in their Contest recently held, which I only enabled to secure through the persistent and kindly efforts of my friends, and I take this means of expressing my sincere gratitude to each and every one of them.

Lillie E. Jones.

ing a few thousand votes to win. It requires a good deal of spirit to put up a battle of this nature and it takes a strong will to be a cheerful loser, but we are sure that this is the way the candidates feel who did not win.

The contest was conducted under the management of the W. C. Potts Contest Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan, one of the best known and most reliable firms in the business. Their local representative, Mr. Brad W. Claffin who had charge of the Record contest, gave every contestant fair and impartial treatment and conducted a fair and square campaign in every way.

Everybody was satisfied with the way the count was conducted and the work of the board of judges, who proved to be experts. With the help of the adding machine, they went through the task in a thorough and businesslike manner and are to be congratulated for the dispatch with which it was done.

The result of the contest will make a number of people happy for some time to come and they will have cause to remember the efforts of the Central Record in their behalf. The Record desires to thank the contestants and their friends for the interest taken and the good work which has been done in securing one of the handsome prizes offered. I shall ever be thankful to them all.

Judith James Daniels.

Card Of Thanks.

I am truly grateful to my host friends who came so nobly to my assistance in the Record contest just closed and by their help assisted me in securing one of the handsome prizes offered. I shall ever be thankful to them all.

Judith James Daniels.

Appreciated Letter From A Popular Contestant.

Fuena Vista, Ky., Oct. 5, 1913.
Editor: Central Record.
Lancaster, Ky.

I want to thank you for the beautiful ring which I received in the recent contest; also to express through your paper my appreciation of the valuable assistance given me by my friends.

Although I did not receive one of the first prizes I feel amply repaid for any efforts I put into it.

The Record is our most highly appreciated paper and I have tried to enlarge your subscription list that others may enjoy it too.

Very sincerely,
Ruth Ruble Lane.

John C. Weber, and his famous organization of musicians that has played annually for Kentucky's Trots, will give a sacred concert at the new Ben Ali Theatre on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 12th. This will be a rare opportunity to hear Mr. Weber's Band together with his vocal and instrumental soloists in Lexington's new Playhouse.

Honor Roll.

Below is the honor roll for Sept. at the Lawson school. The efficient teacher being Miss Anna Holtzclaw.

Primary Grade—Elbie B. Lawson, W. H. Furr Jr., Foster Napier.

1st Grade—Lillian Sutton.

2d Grade—Curtis Robbins, Wesley Miller.

3d Grade—Ester Hammons, Lizzie Mae Elam, Lee Hobson.

4th Grade—Alex Wooten, Beulah Edward, Azile Elam.

5th Grade—Besalee Lawson, Essie Ballard.

Louise M. Alcott's best loved story, "Little Women," made into the sweetest and most gentle drama of our times, will be the season's most important dramatic offering at the new Ben Ali Theatre. See the quaint costuming, antique furniture, the famous orchard setting, and the characters of a story that is treasured in a million memories.

"Little Women" will be presented by Win. A. Brady at Lexington's new Playhouse on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10th, and 11th, with daily matinees. Superintendent of Public Schools, M. A. Cassidy, has instructed all Schools to close in time to permit those in attendance who desire to see the special matinee on Friday. By an agreement with the management the curtain for the Friday matinee will be held until 3:30 P.M., but will rise at the usual time for all other performances.

Fatal Error.

"X. Peck's wife leads him a rather merry gall, I fancy."

"Oh, yes. When he was courting her he told her one day she looked pretty when she was angry, and now it has got to be a habit."

Fate's Perversity.

A commuter was in a dreadful wreck. The collision had been head on, four coaches were telescoped, flames burst forth, the strikers and grommets of the dying mingled with the hiss of escaping steam.

The commuter, black as a coal, was dragged out by the feet from under a mound of charred and badly mangled corpses.

"Are you hurt?" he was asked.

The commuter opened his eyes and stretched himself, then, rising, snarled: "Hurt? Me? Of course I ain't hurt! I never nu! I can't be! I carry an accident insurance policy." —Detroit Free Press.

The Doctor at Sea.

A veteran naval surgeon, speaking of the odd things that crop out in the service, said that one of the younger medical cranks in the navy discovered much virtue in sea water, and, no matter what disease came on, his first action was to throw down the patient's throat a large dose of the nauseating stuff. The crew soon learned to hate him thoroughly. In process of time he fell overboard in a choppy sea, and a great bustle ensued. In the midst of it the captain came up and anxiously inquired the cause. "Oh, nothing, sir!" he said. "The doctor, tar, only the doctor has fell into his medicine chest." —London Telegraph.

The Letter M.

The Hebrew name of M was Mem, water, and it is curious to note that the original form of this character is a waving line, which to the not too particular ancients represented water. By some philologists the letter M is used by the Phoenicians is supposed to have come from a picture representing the human face, the two down strokes representing the contour of the countenance, the V stroke signifying the nose, the two dots, long since disused, and a stroke beneath the V representing the eyes and the mouth. The old Phoenician form of the letter does indeed bear a certain sort of resemblance to the human face.

Rotundity of Earth.

We are assured by competent authority that Thales of Miletus taught that the earth was of globular form so early as 640 B. C. Pythagoras demonstrated from the varying altitudes of the stars that the earth must be round. Aristarchus of Samos maintained that the earth turned on its own axis and revolved about the sun, which doctrine was held by his contemporaries as so absurd and revolting that the philosopher nearly lost his life B. C. 280. The wisdom of the ancients was, of course, lost sight of in the darkness of the "middle ages," and it took Galileo and Copernicus to restore the old knowledge to the world—New York American.

WORRY.
Ungovernable worry is liable to lead a person to insanity and even to death. There must be a way of taking worry so that it shall do us good and not harm. Worry, rightly taken, should train to quietness, humility, patience, gentleness, sympathy.

BALANCED RATIONS FOR DAIRY COWS

In order to economically feed a dairy cow it is more desirable to supply as much of the units required in the roughage part of the ration as possible.

Although it is not true that alfalfa hay contains relatively much larger amounts of protein than corn silage.

Both are very palatable forms of roughage and in combination form a most satisfactory and economical basis for a milk producing ration.

For a cow of moderate production giving in the neighborhood of three gallons of milk a day, fifteen pounds of alfalfa hay and all the corn silage the cow will consume, which will ordinarily amount to thirty or thirty-five pounds daily, will supply sufficient digestible nutrient material for the production of this quantity of milk.

In order to produce larger quantities of milk if a cow has a capacity for producing more milk, it will be necessary to supply additional nutrients.

Additional roughage cannot be consumed, so the extra nutrients required must be supplied in a more concentrated form.

It is commonly estimated that about one pound of a properly balanced grain mixture must be supplied for each ad-

A CAR LOAD OFNEW BOTTLES

JUST ARRIVED.

We can now fill all orders

PROMPTLY.

Serious Error in Lancaster.
Lancaster Citizens Will Do Well To Profit By The Following.

Many fatal cases of kidney disease have reached an incurable stage because the patient did not understand the symptoms. Even today in Lancaster there are many residents making the same serious error. They attribute their mysterious aches and pains to overwork, or worry, perhaps, when all the time their rheumatic pains, backache, bladder irregularities are most probably due to weak and ailing kidneys. If you are ill, if your kidneys are out of order, profit by this Lancaster residents experience.

George Wright, Hotel Kangarian, Lancaster, Ky., says: "I willingly confirm all that I said some years ago praising Doan's Kidney Pills. They do all that is claimed for them. I suffered a great deal from my kidneys and back. Pains through my loins extended to my sides and over my kidneys. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and my kidneys became normal and the pains stopped."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CARTERSVILLE.

Dr. F. H. Smith was in Hustonville last week on business.

Mr. Wm. Parsons bought Mr. Sam Penington farm for $1000.

Mr. J. L. Pitts, of Berea, was visiting relatives here Sunday.

Mr. Joe Campbell and Mr. Jim Penington is preparing to move to Ohio.

Mrs. L. J. Carter has returned to Berea after a short stay with home folks.

Mr. James Smith of Glasgow, is at home for a short stay on account of bad health.

Rev. Beard the pastor of this place filled his first appointment at this place Saturday night and Sunday and was liked by all who heard him.

Mr. John Penington who has been selling goods at this place, for the past year, is selling his entire stock of goods and is expecting to farm the coming year.

Stop That Itch!

I will guarantee you to stop that itch in two weeks.

No remedy that I have ever sold for Eczema, Psoriasis, and all other diseases of the skin has given more thorough satisfaction than the

D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema

I guarantee this remedy.

R. E. McRoberts & Son

Catarrh Suffers Get Immediate And Effective Relief By Using Hyomei.

Hyomei is nature's true remedy for catarrh. There is no stomach dosing—you breathe it.

When using this treatment, you breathe the healing balsams and effectively reach the most remote air cells of the throat, nose and lungs, the catarrhal germs are destroyed—quick and sure relief results.

Hyomei often restores health to chronic cases that had given up all hope of recovery. Its best action is at the start of the disease when the breath is becoming offensive, and constant sniffing, discharges from the nose, droppings in the throat, or that choked up feeling begin to make life a burden. At the first symptom of catarrhal trouble surely use Hyomei. Ask R. E. McRoberts & Son for the complete outfit, $1. He will refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

PREACHERSVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. White gave a most delightful social a few evenings since.

Miss Lillian Garner, of Cedar Creek visited her friend, Mrs. R. P. White Friday.

Mesdames Bell and Gill visited Mr. and Mrs. William Naylor near Stanford last week.

Miss Lucy Miller, of Johnsonville, visited her nephew, Mr. Walter Jordan, last week.

Mrs. Nancy Kelley, of Paint Lick, visited Miss Katherine Payne and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jessie Traylor at Paris.

Mr. H. G. Cummins, who has been quite ill and threatened with pneumonia much better we are glad to state.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Kennedy have moved to Shelly City where Mr. Kennedy will engage in mercantile business.

Word received here says that a handsome daughter has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Naylor near Stanford.

Hon. J. N. Saunders and Mr. Garman, of Stanford were here last week to attend the funeral and burial of Mr. Horace Miller.

Rev. J. E. Roberts and family have left for California, in northern Kentucky where he will take charge of the circuit assigned by the M. E. Conference.

Mr. Frank Rigsby, of Arizona, who has been spending the last two months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rigsby and other relatives, has returned to his ranch in that State.

Stomach Upset? Mi-o-na Will Prevent Further Trouble—It Quickly and Surely Ends Indigestion and Stomach Distress.

Distress after eating, belching of gas and undigested food, that lump of lead feeling in the stomach, headache, bitterness and lack of energy, are warning signals of out-of-order stomach. Now—at once—is the time to stop this distress.

Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets is the remedy. They are absolutely harmless. Get a fifty cent box today. Their use surely and quickly stops stomach distress and improves and strengthens the digestive system so that what you eat is converted into nutrition and the entire system is properly nourished. Money back if not benefited R. E. McRoberts & Son.

Mt. Hebron

The protracted meeting began at this place Sunday night.

Mr. J. M. Vanderpool is in Lexington on business this week.

Mr. Virgil Vanarsdall is visiting his friend, Mr. Fish, at Bedford Ind.

Mr. J. I. Crawford sold to W. B. Burton a nice young horse price $160.

Mr. J. E. Sherrod sold to Mr. Joe Poop some fat cattle at 5 cts. per lb.

Mr. Elizabeth Onstott sold to Mr. Bill Barker 30 bbl. corn et $4 per bbl.

Mr. Hamlet Jennings and family moved from this place to Nicholasville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vanarsdall and son Harold are visiting relatives in Madison Co., this week.

Mr. L. E. Speaks sold to Mr. Eddie Naylor a nice mare price $140. He also sold to Mr. Willie Shields a colt for $5.

Mr. George Teater and Mrs. Minnie Warren of Madison Co. were the guest of their sister Mrs. L. E. Speaks Friday.

The fever patients of this community are reported doing nicely but two more cases have developed in the home of Mr. Joe Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Grow were with their father Mr. W. N. Grow Sunday.

Mr. Grow returned from Danville Hospital last Thursday, after a stay of five weeks, he underwent a very serious operation and is greatly improved in health, much to the delight of his many friends here and elsewhere.

NEURITIS FOLLOWS CRIPPLED NERVES

Painful Effects Of Chronic Rheumatism

Quickly Routed by Rheuma.

It your nerves are all crippled from attacks of Rheumatism, Neuritis can easily get a strong hold on the nerves. This most painful disease is one of the hardest known to expel, but RHEUMA can reach it if given a chance. This testimony is positive proof.

"Last March I was so crippled with Neuritis in left limb I could walk scarcely at all. Tried all remedies I heard of and had two physicians. Notting did me any good until I used RHEUMA; also used ENGLISH MARIGUE and NERVALINE—$2.00 worth of your medicines surely cured me.—Mrs. C. E. Hayes Russell, Ky.

Sold by R. E. McRoberts & Son at 50 cts. a bottle.

MILLERSBURG FEMALE COLLEGE MILLERSBURG, KY.

An Attractive Home School For Girls.

Pupils are surrounded with atmosphere of culture, wholesome fellowship and safe religious environment. New buildings combining all modern conveniences. Health record unsurpassed. Academic and College Entrance Courses. Music Department under skilled artists trained in Germany, Lecture and Concert Course. Domestic Science. The growing popularity of the school is evidenced by the fact that a number of pupils were turned away last session for the lack of room to accommodate them.

Expenses for board, tuition, etc. lower than other schools of like grade. Send for catalog and engage a room early. Rev. C. C. Fisher, Pres. Millersburg, Ky.

CHARLIE WHITE-MOON
The Cowherd Healer ORIGINATOR OF
WHITE-MOON CHEROKEE INDIAN
HERBAL MEDICINE
COM-CEL-SAR & SCIENCE SOPE

Roots & Herbs GOD'S MEDICINES

Compounded according to the Original & Exclusive Formulas & Recipes of Charlie White-Moon, The Cow-Boy Herbalist, for the treatment of thousands of Testimonials. COM-CEL-SAR, the Great Body-Tonic. SCIENCE SOPE, for the Human Skin Only. Ask your druggist, or write.

Mrs. CHARLIE WHITE-MOON
3731 West Broadway
Louisville, Kentucky

Thousands of Testimonials. COM-CEL-SAR, the Great Body-Tonic. SCIENCE SOPE, for the Human Skin Only. Ask your druggist, or write.

Miss Marguerite Woolfolk, before she left for Washington, D. C. to attend school this year.

While out driving last Wednesday afternoon, the old family horse of Mrs. Logan Burke became frightened and ran off, throwing Mrs. Burke out and causing her to receive very severe injuries and having a narrow escape from death.

She was in such a condition that it was impossible to be taken to her home and is still at Mrs. B. P. Swope's where everything possible is being done to aid her recovery.

While she is in a serious condition it is hoped her injuries will not prove fatal.

News was received here last week of the death of Mrs. Anne Dunn, at her home in Noblesville, Ind. Mrs. Dunn the sister of the late W. J. Hogan and has a number of relatives and friends in Garrard county who were very much grieved to hear of it.

She has been failing health for about two years and as she was 85 years of age, her death came as a shock, rather than a surprise as it had been expected for some time.

She is survived by one son, Mr. W. E. Dunn, President of the Citizens Bank of Noblesville.

The social event of the season will be the wedding of Miss Lillian Leavell to Dr. Thomas Wesley Stallings of Cincinnati, which will occur next Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the home of the bride in the country.

It will be a most beautiful wedding in every particular, the music for the occasion will be played by Mrs.

James Carpenter, of Crab Orchard,

who is a very brilliant pianist and an artist of rare gift. Miss Hoffman of Cincinnati, will sing, the bridesmaid

will be Misses Josephine Carpenter of Stanford and Margaret Harding of Danville, Mrs. M. R. Smith of Fort

Smith Ark, sister of the bride will be matron of honor. The gentlemen of the bridal party are intimate friends of Dr. Stallings from Cincinnati.

For Sale.

One of the best farms in Garrard Co containing 101 acres, located on good pike, 3 miles from Camp Dick Robinson. All in fine state of cultivation. Well watered and splendid improvements, 10 acre tobacco barn, almost new. Good neighborhood. This farm is part of the Henry Tomlinson farm and should be seen to be appreciated.

Apply to W. C. Rose, Marcellus Ky., Phone 383-J or A.

Underwood-Simmons Tariff Bill Receives President Wilson's Signature and Becomes a Law.

The Democratic administration has taken a great forward step toward the redemption of party pledges, and at the same time given promise of a material reduction in the high cost of living by the enactment of the Underwood-Simmons Tariff Bill, which received the signature of President Wilson and became a law on last Friday. The law is the most liberal in the minds of many people since 1871, and it is the wisest in the eyes of man, and it is well deserved greatly to the credit of its authors and President Wilson who so ardently advocated it. Under its provision the following articles are placed upon the free list:

Cattle, sheep and other food animals; flour, wheat and its products; eggs, peans, currants, chocolate and cocoas. Other articles put on the free list are,

Wool and its products, agricultural implements, sewing machines, lumber, leather, shoes, pig iron, scrap iron and ferromanganese, cement, asphalt, sugar, machinery and school text books.

Treasury experts estimate that for the year ending July 1, 1914, the receipts under the bill will be $1,029,000,000, with expenditures of $1,013,000,000, and a surplus of $16,000,000. The surplus in 1915 is estimated at $18,000,000.

BRYANTSVILLE

Mr and Mrs R. I. Burton were in Richmond Monday.

Mr W. C. Rose attended court at Harrodsburg Monday.

Mr W. M. Jenkins is in Indianapolis for two weeks visit.

Mr G. B. Rose left Monday for Booneville on a business trip of several weeks.

Mrs House and Mrs Peele, of Nicholasville, have been visiting Mrs. W. B. Halcombe.

Mr and Mrs Richard Burton attended the Trots at Lexington several days this week.

Mr and Mrs Harvey Herd, of Fort Worth, Tex., are visiting Mr. B. F. Patterson and family.

Mrs Eva Davis and son, Maurice, of Hillsboro Ind., are the guests of Mrs. Hallie B. Sweeney.

Mrs Margaret Parr, of Lebanon Ind., is expected soon to visit her sister, Mrs. Fanny Bryant.

Mrs Hogan Ballard is at home again after a visit with her mother, Mrs. H. Elder, at Nicholasville.

Mrs. W. J. Hogan came home Saturday after a very pleasant two-weeks visit with relatives at Stanford.

Miss Mayme Lee Ballard was in Lexington last week for a few days visit, she having gone over to see her cousin,

Miss Marguerite Woolfolk, before she left for Washington, D. C. to attend school this year.

While out driving last Wednesday afternoon, the old family horse of Mrs. Logan Burke became frightened and ran off, throwing Mrs. Burke out and causing her to receive very severe injuries and having a narrow escape from death.

She was in such a condition that it was impossible to be taken to her home and is still at Mrs. B. P. Swope's where everything possible is being done to aid her recovery.

While she is in a serious condition it is hoped her injuries will not prove fatal.

News was received here last week of the death of Mrs. Anne Dunn, at her home in Noblesville, Ind. Mrs. Dunn the sister of the late W. J. Hogan and has a number of relatives and friends in Garrard county who were very much grieved to hear of it.

She has been failing health for about two years and as she was 85 years of age, her death came as a shock, rather than a surprise as it had been expected for some time.

She is survived by one son, Mr. W. E. Dunn, President of the Citizens Bank of Noblesville.

The social event of the season will be the wedding of Miss Lillian Leavell to Dr. Thomas Wesley Stallings of Cincinnati, which will occur next Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the home of the bride in the country.

It will be a most beautiful wedding in every particular, the music for the occasion will be played by Mrs.

James Carpenter, of Crab Orchard,

who is a very brilliant pianist and an artist of rare gift. Miss Hoffman of Cincinnati, will sing, the bridesmaid

will be Misses Josephine Carpenter of Stanford and Margaret Harding of Danville, Mrs. M. R. Smith of Fort

Smith Ark, sister of the bride will be matron of honor. The gentlemen of the bridal party are intimate friends of Dr. Stallings from Cincinnati.

Proposition For Fair Election Turned Down.

Lancaster, Ky., Sept 6, 1913

TRY SOLACE AT OUR EXPENSE

Money Back for any case of Rheumatism, Neuralgia or Headache thatSolace Fails To Remove.

SOLACE REMEDY is a recent medical discovery of three German Scientists that dissolves Uric Acid Crystals and Purifies the Blood. It is easy to take, and will not affect the weakest stomach.

It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Law to be absolutely free from opiates or harmful drugs of any description.

SOLACE is a pure specific in every way, and has been proven beyond question to be the surest and quickest remedy for Uric Acid Troubles known to medical science, no matter how long standing. It reaches and removes the root of the trouble (Uric Acid) and purifies the blood.

THE SOLACE CO. of Battle Creek are the Solace U. S. Agents and have thousands of voluntary testimonial letters which have been received from grateful people SOLACE has restored to health. Testimonials, literature and FREE BOX sent upon request.

R. Lee Morris, president of the First National Bank of Chico, Texas, wrote the Solace Company as follows:

"I want you to send a box of Solace to my father in Memphis, Tenn., for which I enclose $1. This remedy has been used by some friends of mine late and I must say its action was wonderful." (Signed) R. L. Morris.

Put up in 25c, 50c and $1. boxes.

IT'S MIGHTY TIME TO BE WELL AND YOU CAN SOON BE SO BY TAKING SOLACE. "No Special Treatment Schemes or Fees". JUST SOLACE ALONE does the work. Write today for the free box, etc.

SOLACE REMEDY CO., Battle Creek Mich.

INSURE Your TOBACCO Against HAIL STORM
with
Fred P Frishie

Office Citizens National Bank

HERE'S THE HOG

ROUNDRON REMEDY CO.
Lexington, Ky.

Engaged in the sale of hog meat, especially bacon, ham, and other products. They are now manufacturing bacon, ham, and other products. They are now manufacturing bacon, ham, and other products.

JANKE'S SUB-LIQUID CO., Bowling Green, Ky.

Sold by BASELDEN BROS.

Official Directory Of Garrard County.

Circuit Judge—Hon. Charles V. Hardin Counselor-at-Law—Attorney—John E. Lewis
Postmaster—William B. Mason
Master Commissioner—W. H. Johnson
Trustee—Jury and Bond—F. Robinson
Official Court Photographer—Missouri Shelly Mason
County Judge—A. D. Ford
County Attorney—J. E. Robinson
County Clerk—J. W. Hamilton
Deputy Sheriff—Harry Teelinson
Clerk—L. A. Jones
Sheriff—George A. Ballard
Deputy Sheriff—C. A. Ballard
Superintendent of Schools—Mrs. J. Hale Higginbotham
Assessor—W. S. Carter
Deputy Assessor—H. R. Ray
Judge—Jack Adams
Superintendent of Roads—Charles Bourne Treasurer—E. F. Hudson

MAGISTRATES,
J. P. Bourne, 1st Dist.
Legion Isom, 2nd Dist.
Harrison Ray, 3rd Dist.
J. C. Gandy, 4th Dist.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION.
Cronly Bombois, 1st Dist.
R. D. McMurtry, 2nd Dist.
O. J. Hendon, 3rd Dist.
Thomas P. King, 4th Dist.

CITY OF LANCASTER.
Mayor—H. T. Logan
City Judge—J. W. Morris
City Attorney—R. H. Tomlinson
City Clerk—H. K. Herndon
City Assessor—John M. Mount
City Treasurer—D. A. Thomas Chief Police—L. E. Herron

COUNCILMAN.
Perker Gregory
W. M. Zane
G. S. Greco

H. C. Hamilton
B. F. Walker
Wm. Herndon

Not Always.

It isn't always well to look
A bulldog in the eyes,
If there is any way in which
One can do otherwise;
Nor is it always best to tell
A liar that he lies,
Unless you're big and strong, and he's Not more than half your size.

Public Sale.

We will on

MONDAY, OCTOBER 27TH, at 11 o'clock in front of the court house door, offer for sale one tract of land containing about 90 acres, located on Kirkville pine near Hackley, Garrard county, Ky. The above tract is now in grass and well watered, with never failing springs.

This land is sold for the purpose of settling the estate of Almira R. Denton, deceased.

For any information regarding the same, call on either of the undersigned.

V. A. Lear, S. D. Cochran.
Lancaster, Kentucky.

Public Sale.OF*BLUEGRASS FARM.

An administratrix of the estate of J.
B. Sandusky, and in order to settle up his estate, I will offer at the Court House door, Nicholasville, Ky., on

MONDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1913

at about 12 o'clock noon 110 acres of improved land, situated 33 miles south of Nicholasville on the Danville pike.
This farm has a 2 story frame house with 7 rooms, all outbuildings, tenant house, good stock and tobacco barn, well watered and fenced and in high state of cultivation. School house and church at the door and in one of the best neighborhoods in the county.
This will make some one a good home,
and will have to be seen to be appreciated. Terms given day of sale.

For further particulars, write or apply to MRS. E. E. SANDUSKY, 329
East College street, Louisville, or G.
W. Lyne, Real Estate, Nicholasville, Ky.

It

Public Sale.Of Real Estate And Live*Stock.

Having decided to change my location, and to engage in other pursuits,
I will offer for sale at public auction

THURSDAY OCTOBER 23, 1913
at my farm two miles west of Bry-antsville, Garrard county, Ky., my fine Blue Grass Farm of 192 acres, well improved and in a high state of cultivation. This farm is well watered, has a nice 7 room dwelling, all out-buildings, two large tobacco barns, comparatively new, good stock barn and entire place under good fence.

The live stock consists of two pairs
of work mules, 9 head of young mules,
yearlings and sucklings, one driving
mare and one driving horse, one 2 year
old colt, 2 sucking horse colts, 31 head
of young cattle, 1 good milch cow, 45 head of hogs, including several good brood sows with pigs, 150 barrels corn, 25 tons good mixed hay, baled, 270
shocks fodder, 10 acres tobacco, an extra good crop, and all kinds of materials necessary to the cultivating of
a good farm, including wagon, mower,
binder, dril, plows, cultivator & c.

The farm will be sold promptly at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, and will be an absolute sale without reservation
or bid.

Dinner will be served on the ground.

Terms: Farm one half cash, balance

in equal payments, one, two and three years. Live stock and other articles

all sums of $20, and under, cash over

that amount on a credit of six months

with good negotiable notes bearing 6

per cent interest from day of sale.

For further particulars call on or address R. C. BROWNING,
Bryantsville, Ky.

I. M. Dunn, Auctioneer.

Public SaleOf Land, Stock and Crop.

I will sell to the highest and best bidder on my premises on

Wednesday, October 22nd, 1913

The following described property.

My farm of 101 acres of land, located in Garrard county, on Fisher ford
turnpike, 22 miles West of Camp Dick Robinson. The improvements consist of 8 rooms dwelling, 2 barns, one of which is
a ten acre tobacco barn, good orchard,
two never failing springs. The farm is splendidly fenced and in a high state of cultivation, in a good neighborhood, close to schools, post office and in one of the most fertile
sections of Kentucky.

At same time and place will sell 70
head of 60 lb. sheep; 10 extra good sows and pigs; 7 first-class yearling mule mares, to be sold in pairs; 3 work horses, 4, 6 and 9 years old; 3 yearling colts; 1 mare and colt; 5 No. 1 Jersey milk
cows; 3 Jersey heifers, 3 red milk cows,
All kinds of farming implements, including two horse wagon and couple of hay frames.

Sale begins promptly at 10 o'clock

a.m.—Dinner on the grounds.

W. C. ROSE,
Marcellus, Ky.

Col. I. M. Dunn, Auctioneer.

EXERCISE!

A person leading a quiet, sedentary life is healthy only by accident, unless he makes up for it by a little vigorous, open air exercise. Climb a locomotive firebox with coal, without removing the cinders, and the engine will become so clogged as not to work properly. The body is exactly like a locomotive; if it is not exercised, the waste products accumulate and the result is disease. Moreover, judicious exercise shakes up the organs of the body and increases their activity; it keeps the muscles in condition to meet the extraordinary emergencies which may come to any of us; and, if taken heartily, diverts the mind from its ordinary cares and lets a man return with new vigor and refreshed spirits to his tasks.

Ninety per cent of the women who bother the doctors with all sorts of more or less vague complaints, need nothing but a loose dress, a hoe and a garden. Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission.

SUNSHINE!

The Italians have a saying, "Where the sunlight is shut out, the doctor is let in." Fire, steam and a few powerful chemicals are the only things that will kill disease germs as quickly as sunlight. The germ in the spit of the July sun for an hour or two, are dead or harmless. Nor is the sunshine any more friendly to the other enemies of mankind. Consequently, leave your windows and shutters open for the fresh air and sunshine. Give the fresh air and sunshine as much access to your whole body as possible. Exercise out of doors daily, with garments no heavier than necessary. The fresh air and sunshine, as well as the exercise, will stimulate the action of the skin in throwing off the waste products of the body.

Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission.

PLACARDED!

When the physicians says "Scarlet Fever" or "Diphtheria," and a colored card is put on your front door, and you are not allowed to go out, and only the doctor can go back and forth, don't think that all this disturbance is useless, and intended simply to fill the pockets of the doctors. These germ diseases are spread in ways so infinitely delicate that it is hard for us to understand them. More often than not too little rather than too much care is exercised. If the last discharges of a typhoid patient are not thoroughly disinfected by formaldehyde, quicklime, or other powerful chemicals before being thrown out, it is perfectly possible for the germs to be carried in water under ground, or by filter through the air, for a long distance, to infect other people. The germs of scarlet fever may live in the clothes of the victims and months later infect the person who chances to handle them. When the doctors' precautions bother you, remember that the ignorance, carelessness or obstinacy of some one else is responsible for the disease in your family, and cooperate with your doctor.

Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission.

PLACARDED!

The live stock consists of two pairs
of work mules, 9 head of young mules,
yearlings and sucklings, one driving
mare and one driving horse, one 2 year
old colt, 2 sucking horse colts, 31 head
of young cattle, 1 good milch cow,
45 head of hogs, including several good
brood sows with pigs, 150 barrels corn,
25 tons good mixed hay, baled, 270
shocks fodder, 10 acres tobacco, an extra good crop, and all kinds of materials necessary to the cultivating of
a good farm, including wagon, mower,
binder, dril, plows, cultivator & c.

The farm will be sold promptly at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, and will be an absolute sale without reservation
or bid.

Dinner will be served on the ground.

Terms: Farm one half cash, balance

in equal payments, one, two and three years. Live stock and other articles

all sums of $20, and under, cash over

that amount on a credit of six months

with good negotiable notes bearing 6

per cent interest from day of sale.

For further particulars call on or ad-

dress R. C. BROWNING,
Bryantsville, Ky.

I. M. Dunn, Auctioneer.

Public SaleOf Land, Stock and Crop.

I will sell to the highest and best
bidder on my premises on

Wednesday, October 22nd, 1913

The following described property.

My farm of 101 acres of land, located in

Garrard county, on Fisher ford

turnpike, 22 miles West of Camp Dick

Robinson. The improvements consist of

8 rooms dwelling, 2 barns, one of which is

a ten acre tobacco barn, good orchard,

two never failing springs. The farm is splendidly fenced and in a high state of cultivation, in a good

neighborhood, close to schools, post office and in one of the most fertile

sections of Kentucky.

At same time and place will sell 70

head of 60 lb. sheep; 10 extra good

sows and pigs; 7 first-class yearling

mule mares, to be sold in pairs; 3 work

horses, 4, 6 and 9 years old; 3 yearling

colts; 1 mare and colt; 5 No. 1 Jersey milk

cows; 3 Jersey heifers, 3 red milk cows,

All kinds of farming implements, including two horse wagon and couple of

hay frames.

Sale begins promptly at 10 o'clock

a.m.—Dinner on the grounds.

W. C. ROSE,
Marcellus, Ky.

Keystone Double Disk Harrow

The double disk harrow is designed for those farmers who wish to do two diskings in one. This makes it a particularly desirable implement for summer fallow purposes, to keep the proper much for moisture conservation.

The Keystone double disk harrow is made up with the regular Keystone disk harrow in front, and a cutaway attachment for the rear. The rear attachment is very solidly made, and is operated with one lever, convenient to the seat of the driver. If the farmer desires to use the front harrow only, the rear attachment can be easily removed in a few seconds.

If desired, the harrow will be furnished with cutaway disks in front, thus making a double cutaway disk harrow. This harrow is furnished regularly with the forecarriage, and in 5, 6 and 7-foot cut.

Becker, Ballard & Co.
Bryantsville, Ky.

Obey That Impulse!

The fine joy of Automobile ownership may now be yours for prices are down within the easy reach of untold thousands, who have awaited the coming of the right car at the right price.

Model T Runabout... $500.
Model T Touring Car... $550.
Model T Town Car... $750.

with Full Equipment f. o. b. Detroit.

R. L. ELKIN, Agent for Garrard Co.

REMEMBER

We can serve as your Administrator, Guardian, Trustee and save you money and worry. Your Will, Insurance Policy, Mortgage, Notes, Stock Inventory, Bonds or Stock Certificates, when lost or destroyed, causes endless trouble, misery and legal expense. Put your valuable papers in one of our Safe Deposit Boxes and you will never have to worry.

The Garrard Bank & Trust Company

THE NATIONAL BANK OF LANCASTER.

Capital $50,000. Surplus $30,000.

A. R. DENNY, President.

J. E. STORMES, Vice Pres't.

S. C. DENNY, Cashier.

R. T. EMBRY, Ass't Cashier.

J. L. GILL, Book-keeper.

Safety Deposit Boxes For Rent.

WE SOLICIT YOUR BUSINESS.

Samuel D. Cochran, Alex R. Denny, J. H. Posey, J. E. Stormes, S. C. Denny, J. L. Gill, Dr. W. M. Elliott, Directors.

B. F. HUDSON, President. J. S. JOHNSON, Vice Pres't.
W. O. PIGNEY, Ass't Cash'r. J. J. WALKER, Jr., Book-keeper.
W. F. CHAMP, Cashier.

ORGANIZED 1883.

The Citizens National Bank OF LANCASTER, KY.

Capital $50,000. Surplus $40,000.

This bank is supervised by the United States Government. Your deposits are thus guarded; safety should be first in all things. Deposit with us, and you can help us, and we can help you. Make this bank YOUR bank.

His Portrait

How a Rich Man Paid For an Injustice

By ANDREW C. EWING

Edgar Beckwith, at eighteen, having shown a marked artistic ability, wished to be an artist, but his father had recently died leaving no estate, and Edgar, far from having the means to study a profession, was obliged to support his mother. He obtained a position in the mercantile house of Goldwin & Co. at $15 a week.

Mr. Goldwin claimed that a business plant should be run on strictly business principles. He paid very low salaries, not inquiring into the honesty of his less important employees, his chief object being to get his work done cheaply. He figured that if he could afford to lose small sums now and then rather than pay an increase of salaries for honesty. Besides, he had an inexpensive detective service which consisted of himself only. He would place bills on his desk in his private office, go out, set a watch on who entered, and if the bills were missing on his return would know who had stolen them. Then he would discharge the thief.

One day he placed a bill on his desk and went out, intending to be gone only a few minutes. Half an hour passed before he returned to find Edgar Beckwith just leaving the room. "Come back," said Goldwin.

Edgar went back into the room and when asked what he had wanted said that he had been sent with a message by the head of one of the departments.

While he was delivering the message Goldwin was looking for the bill he had left exposed. It was gone. He said nothing about it to Edgar, but the next morning the boy was notified that he was discharged.

Edgar was not minded to submit patiently to an imposition. He went to Mr. Goldwin and said to him that since his services were no longer required he would not object to leaving the concern, but a certificate of good character would be necessary to enable him to find another place.

"It's against my rule to give certificates of good character. I require none when I hire persons, and what I don't ask I don't give."

"Then tell me the reason of my discharge."

"That I decline to do also. Should I give you the reason you would call upon me to prove it. That would take time. Time is money."

Edgar saw by the resolute look on the man's face that he would gain nothing by pressing the matter and left with anger in his heart. He went straight to the head of his department and asked for an explanation. He was given the reason of his discharge and advised not to stir the matter, because it could only result to his injury.

There had been two other persons in Goldwin's private office besides Edgar, one of whom had taken the bill. But it would be difficult to prove this even if an opportunity had been offered.

Edgar went home and talked the matter over with his mother. After thinking of it she counseled him to swallow the pill. Since he had not been openly accused it was not incumbent upon him to make a defense, and if he made a defense there was every chance that he would not be able to prove his innocence.

Goldwin found himself in an unpleasant position. His portrait—pronounced a work of art—was for sale, and persons were asking why he did not buy it. To do so would cost him $9,500 more than the price he would have paid had he accepted it. He sent an agent to Beckwith to try to effect a compromise. The agent returned with a statement from the artist that the painting was making a great reputation for him and he had decided not to sell it, but kept it before the public. Goldwin decided not to be "done" that way and let the matter rest.

The picture was withdrawn from exhibition, and when it appeared again the covetous expression that had been left out was in it. This being reported to the original, he went to see it again and was furious. Again he went to his lawyer and directed him to prosecute the artist for ridiculing him before the world. The lawyer showed him cartoons of prominent men in the newspapers and informed him that it would be much more difficult for him to recover in his own case than for these to do so. Besides, any jury would decide against him. If he wished to own the picture he must pay the price.

Goldwin sent again to Beckwith, asking him to make a price on the portrait. Beckwith made a price of $25,000. Goldwin made no reply to the offer.

Again the picture was withdrawn, and when it reappeared the covetous look on the face had become miserly. Goldwin tried again to buy it, but the price had gone up to $30,000. Goldwin feared that if he did not pay it the expression would become worse and the price would go higher.

He sent word to the artist to ask whether, if the $30,000 was paid, he would restore the original expression to the face. Beckwith agreed to do so and intimated that if the money were paid him he would distribute it among the poor. This closed the bargain, the covetous look on the face disappeared, and the poor were richer by $30,000.

When Goldwin opened the case containing his portrait a statement of the true reasons for the great rise in its price lay where it would be seen.

glasses, put them on and inspected it. Beckwith went on with the work he was doing.

"What's your price for a portrait of that size?" asked Goldwin.

"The size doesn't make any difference as to the price."

"Well, what will you charge to paint my portrait? I don't want it myself, but my family do. If it doesn't cost too much I'll humor them."

"Five hundred dollars."

"Five hundred dollars! How many portraits can you paint in a year?"

"A dozen perhaps."

"That's $6,000 for sitting here dabbing paint. Why, I don't pay any one of my hands of departments in my business half that, and they're all first class business men."

To this the artist made no reply.

"If you'll paint my portrait that size, pausing, frame and all, for $250, it's a go."

"Five hundred is my price."

Goldwin spent some time trying to obtain a reduction. Finally it occurred to him that, after all, perhaps, he would not need to pay anything till the portrait was finished and the artist, having expended his time on it, would then probably take less for it rather than have it on his hands.

"You'll want your money, I suppose," he said.

"Yes," said Goldwin.

Beckwith arranged with his subject for the sittings, and Goldwin departed. While the man of business was planning to beat the artist, the artist was planning to beat the man of business. But Goldwin was in this respect in his element, while Beckwith was not. Though during the sittings that followed, he racked his brain for some plan by which he might get his revenge for that past injustice which still rankled within him, his inventive powers failed him. One thing he resolved upon—he would paint the best portrait of his subject that he was capable of painting.

Goldwin had grown to manhood and left with his father, who was a widower, holding his daughter, Katrina, a lass of eighteen. Huber, who was a widower, held her to his bosom until he could marry her. Katrina, who loved her father and realized the obedience required of her, suffered with her newly found pleasure. Her father noticed that something was troubling her and concluded to bring about her nuptials in the hope that they would drive it away.

The principal cause of Katrina's distress was that she had got wind of the match her father had arranged for her with Gotthold. She was at liberty to write her lover, but she dare not receive a letter from him lest it fall into the hands of her father. The forbidden fruit, which is always sweetest, worked on the emotions of the two and stimulated the passion that was growing between them. Katrina, who loved her father and realized the obedience required of her, suffered with her newly found pleasure. Her father noticed that something was troubling her and concluded to bring about her nuptials in the hope that they would drive it away.

The truth is that Katrina, knowing her father's wish that she should discourage all suitors, assured him that she would not leave him in his old age. Indeed, when the matter of marriage was broached it was by Huber himself, Carl Gotthold, about thirty-five years old, who had succeeded to the old man's watch business. When Goldwin was in this respect in his element, while Beckwith was not. Though during the sittings that followed, he racked his brain for some plan by which he might get his revenge for that past injustice which still rankled within him, his inventive powers failed him. One thing he resolved upon—he would paint the best portrait of his subject that he was capable of painting.

Gotthold, who had a persuasive tongue in his head, represented to Huber that when he died Katrina would be married to him. He told Huber that she was not the only girl he had ever seen who would care to marry and would thereafter live a lonely life. "If you will give her to me," he said, "I will come to live with you, going into the city every morning to business and returning in the evening. You will keep her with you, and when you die she will not be alone in the world."

Now, Gotthold had considerable money that he had inherited from his father, besides his watch business. His proposition struck Huber favorably, though he did not admit it. But before Gotthold left him he promised to think of the matter. He did think of it and made up his mind that he had better accept the proposition. He said nothing for some time to his daughter, for it Europe parents have for centuries been accustomed to arrange marriages for their children.

Katrina kept a boat, and when she wished to go to any place on or near the margin of the lake she would go down to the little shed where she kept it, take it out and pull out on the bosom of the water. One evening while near the middle of the lake a sudden squall came up and overturned her boat. She clung to it till another boat approached her and a young man. In it took her aboard, righted her boat and pulled his boat, towing her boat, to the nearest point of land. There he built a fire, and she dried his clothing by its warmth.

The two remained there for some time waiting for the storm to subside, then re-entered the young man's boat, and he pulled her to her landing place.

He asked her if he might come and see her, and she refused his consent, telling him that her father dreaded to have any young man call upon her. But there was another reason. She did not intend to let her father know that she had been capsized in the middle of the lake. She had narrowly escaped drowning, for, though a good swimmer, the water in these Swiss lakes is so cold that she could not have possibly swum ashore. Indeed, she was so benumbed when help reached her that she was about to let go her hold. Should her father know all this he would never let her go out in her boat again.

Who knows but that if Katrina had given this young man, Caspar Beck, permission to visit her he would never have availed himself of it. By this as it may be, her refusal, which was not dictated by an unwillingness on her part to receive him, at once filled him with a desire to break through the barrier that stood between them. But he said nothing to her of this, apparently accepting her refusal as final, and with a goodby he pulled out into the lake toward his home near Lucerne.

Katrina reached her father's house when he was absorbed in Gotthold's proposition. Consequently she did not receive as close a questioning as to where she had been during the storm as might have been expected. But the old man had no idea of bronching the matter concerning her future until he had definitely made up his mind on the subject, and his mind was far from being made up. Gotthold knew that if he got Katrina he would not be soon and, having made his proposition, waited patiently for the old man to come to a decision. The applicant had nothing further to do in the matter, for Huber would not be influenced and whichever way he decided his decision would be final.

Goldwin sent again to Beckwith, asking him to make a price on the portrait. Beckwith made a price of $25,000. Goldwin made no reply to the offer.

Again the picture was withdrawn, and when it reappeared the covetous look on the face had become miserly. Goldwin tried again to buy it, but the price had gone up to $30,000. Goldwin feared that if he did not pay it the expression would become worse and the price would go higher.

He sent word to the artist to ask whether, if the $30,000 was paid, he would restore the original expression to the face.

Beckwith agreed to do so and intimated that if the money were paid him he would distribute it among the poor.

This closed the bargain, the covetous look on the face disappeared, and the poor were richer by $30,000.

When Goldwin opened the case containing his portrait a statement of the true reasons for the great rise in its price lay where it would be seen.

He sent word to the artist to ask whether, if the $30,000 was paid, he would restore the original expression to the face.

Beckwith agreed to do so and intimated that if the money were paid him he would distribute it among the poor.

This closed the bargain, the covetous look on the face disappeared, and the poor were richer by $30,000.

When Goldwin opened the case containing his portrait a statement of the true reasons for the great rise in its price lay where it would be seen.

He sent word to the artist to ask whether, if the $30,000 was paid, he would restore the original expression to the face.

Beckwith agreed to do so and intimated that if the money were paid him he would distribute it among the poor.

This closed the bargain, the covetous look on the face disappeared, and the poor were richer by $30,000.

When Goldwin opened the case containing his portrait a statement of the true reasons for the great rise in its price lay where it would be seen.

He sent word to the artist to ask whether, if the $30,000 was paid, he would restore the original expression to the face.

Beckwith agreed to do so and intimated that if the money were paid him he would distribute it among the poor.

This closed the bargain, the covetous look on the face disappeared, and the poor were richer by $30,000.

When Goldwin opened the case containing his portrait a statement of the true reasons for the great rise in its price lay where it would be seen.

He sent word to the artist to ask whether, if the $30,000 was paid, he would restore the original expression to the face.

Beckwith agreed to do so and intimated that if the money were paid him he would distribute it among the poor.

This closed the bargain, the covetous look on the face disappeared, and the poor were richer by $30,000.

When Goldwin opened the case containing his portrait a statement of the true reasons for the great rise in its price lay where it would be seen.

He sent word to the artist to ask whether, if the $30,000 was paid, he would restore the original expression to the face.

Beckwith agreed to do so and intimated that if the money were paid him he would distribute it among the poor.

This closed the bargain, the covetous look on the face disappeared, and the poor were richer by $30,000.

When Goldwin opened the case containing his portrait a statement of the true reasons for the great rise in its price lay where it would be seen.

He sent word to the artist to ask whether, if the $30,000 was paid, he would restore the original expression to the face.

Beckwith agreed to do so and intimated that if the money were paid him he would distribute it among the poor.

This closed the bargain, the covetous look on the face disappeared, and the poor were richer by $30,0

WE WILL BE CLOSED
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11th, 1913
On Account Of Religious Holiday.

THE JOSEPH MERCANTILE COMPANY.

We Write Any Kind of

INSURANCE

Office at National Bank.

BEAZLEY & COLLIER

Office over The National Bank of Lancaster, Ky. Phone 27.

STYLE IN HER FOOTWEAR

is a positive necessity with the up-to-date woman. She insists upon it just as she insists on comfort and ease in her shoes, and if she be economically inclined she also looks for durability in her footwear. We cater to just such ladies, always showing the most elegant and comfortable fitting shoe of the best make at moderate prices.

R. S. BROWN.

You Knead The DOUGH

made with our flour about half as long as you make with ordinary brands. That's a saving of labor. It takes much less of our

WHITE SWAN FLOUR

to make a loaf or a cake than it does of many other flours. That's a saving of money. It takes less time to bake too. That's a saving of time. You need our WHITE SWAN FLOUR.

Lancaster Elevator & Flour Mills

ISN'T IT

Annoying to have the fire go on a strike just when you need it most?

Have you ever thought the trouble
may be in the coal?

Try a ton or so of our clean, free-from-slate-and-stone coal. Plenty of people have had their fire go back on them until after they had tried our coal. Now they haven't a bit of trouble. Worth a trial anyway.

Lancaster Lumber & Mfg Co.

Gossip About People

A Brief Mention of the Comings and Goings by Those We Are Interested In.

Mr. Louis Tindler was a visitor in Richmond last Saturday.

Mrs. James Champ of Paint Lick is visiting her son, W. F. Champ.

Mrs. J. L. Yantis of the county has been on a visit to Stanford friends.

Mrs. Lizzie Dillon, of Stanford, was visiting friends in our city Monday.

Mr. T. N. Aldridge of Stanford was a popular visitor in our town Saturday.

W. R. Cook has gone to Butler Ga., where he is engaged in the mule trade. Judge Lewis L. Walker was in Austerlitz this week on legal business.

Ben Herndon came over from Danville last Saturday for the celebration.

Miss Mattie Adams left the first of the week to visit friends in Lexington.

Attorney H. Clay Faughnan is attending Circuit Court in Richmond this week.

Miss Hannah Aldridge of Stanford is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Raymond Haselden.

Mr. John Parks, of DeWitt, Ill. has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parks.

Miss Lou J. Grant left Sunday for a vacation and a recuperative sojourn in Crab Orchard.

Mrs. Carrie Y. Davidson leaves this week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Z. T. Rice of Richmond.

Mr. Earl Farrar and L. G. Davidson are on a fishing trip near the mouth of Rockcastle river this week.

Misses Anna Scrivener and Willie Traynor, of Richmond, were guests of Professor and Mrs. Caneer.

Dr. Woods Oglevie, wife and child of Princeton Ky. have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Herndon.

Miss Jennie Dickerson has returned to her home in Richmond, after being the guest of the Misses Brown.

Mrs. Robert McRoberts entertained at an elaborate dinner complimentary to her mother, Mrs. Letty Ware.

Miss Minnie Kemper, of Danville, has been the guest of her sisters, Mrs. W. A. Price and Mrs. Ed Perkins.

Mrs. Mabel Ruggles of Portsmouth, Ohio, is the guest of Mrs. G. C. Faris at the home of the Misses Gill.

Miss Loula Slack of Winchester, has accepted a position as clerk in R. H. Batson's mercantile establishment.

Mr. J. W. Acey of Lebanon has been here with his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Hughes.

Mr. Henry Bright and Messrs. W. C. and R. G. Price of Danville, were visitors here on "Big Fall Fashion Day."

Mrs. J. Milton Elliott Sr. and Miss Cecil Elliott are at home after a visit to relatives at Frankfort and Lexington.

Miss Joan Mount has gone to Paris on a visit and the latter part of the week will attend the Trots at Lexington.

Mrs. Lester Hilton of Stanford and Mrs. J. R. Cass of Erodhead were guests of Mrs. R. H. Batson on last Friday.

Mrs. W. K. Warner, Miss Higgins and Mr. Wilson, of Stanford, composed an automobile party visiting this city Saturday.

Mrs. James Woods and Mrs. E. L. Woods were among the many Paint Lick people seen on the streets here Saturday.

Mrs. E. C. Barnard is with her mother, Mrs. P. D. Gill, after a course of treatment under the celebrated Doctors Mayo.

Prof. D. W. Bridges accompanied by D. Warren Jr. came down Saturday and remained over Sunday with Lancaster friends.

Miss Dove Harris, head of Danville's thriving Business College, was over Saturday to attend Lancaster's "Big Fall Fashion Day."

Mrs. Theodore Wintersmith, of Louisville and Miss Lucy Robinson, of Elizabethtown, arrived Tuesday to visit Mrs. W. R. Cook.

Mrs. Ann Robinson has rented her cottage on Danville Avenue to Mrs. Nannie McGrath who will again become a resident of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer and Mrs. Sallie Marot, of Camp Nelson motored to this place Sunday and were guests of Mr. Jack Adams and family.

Mr. W. C. Petts and Mr. and Mrs. Brad Chaffin left Saturday afternoon for Toledo, O. for a brief rest before "putting on" another Contest in West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sinclair have returned to their home in Kingston, Mo. after a visit to friends and relatives in Garrard county and Mr. Ottie Jones of Lexington.

Mrs. Dolly Brown accompanied the School Superintendent, Miss Jennie Higgins to Buena Vista for a visit and enjoyed the hospitality of the North Garrard people.

Mr. and Mrs. Tarlton Sulian and daughter, Miss Lillian of Lexington, and Mr. and Mrs. Julian, of Frankfort, composed a party of motorists who were in this city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Arnold and son, and William and Miss Bettie Slusher, of Richmond, motored to Lancaster last Sunday and were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gill.

Miss Helen Gill was hostess of a sewing party last Friday afternoon, the affair being complimentary to Mrs. G. C. Farris's visitor, Mrs. Dr. Ringles of Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. C. C. Brown left Saturday for Danville en route to her home in Louisville, after being royally entertained by a number of friends here at her former place of residence.

The C. W. B. M. auxiliary had their regular monthly assemblage at the Christian church on Monday afternoon, followed by an enjoyable social with a number of attractive features.

Little Johnie Anderson, a 5-year-old, whose father died a year ago at this place of typhoid fever, has a serious case of diphtheria, and the insertion of a tube has been resorted to as the only means of saving the child's life.

Mr. and Mrs. John Starnes, Mrs. W. R. Cook, and guests, Mrs. Theodore Wintersmith, of Louisville, and Miss Lucy Robinson of Elizabethtown, will comprise an automobile party who will attend the trots at Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gibbs, Misses Elsie Morrow and Elizabeth Gibbs, of Lancaster, were visitors in Danville Wednesday ... Mrs. J. Fleece Robinson, of Lancaster, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ben D. Herndon-Messenger.

Messrs. Jeff Dunn and Jack Dunn, Miss Coyle, and Miss Bayne West, of Lexington, came over on the 4th, the Messrs. Dunn and Miss Coyle as Demonstrators of the Woolfolk Coffee, a brand made famous by that well-known Lexington grocery firm.

Among the many handsome social affairs arranged in Mrs. C. C. Brown's honor, Mrs. Sauley Hughes' 4 o'clock luncheon Friday afternoon was notable gathering, and the friends, the hostess honored with invitations considered it one of the most enjoyable functions given in honor of the popular Louisvillian.

Miss Joe Hord Frank's admiring friends, will be delighted to hear that she has the splendid position of vocal teacher in the large Woman's College, of Richmond, Va. Those who have heard Miss Frank sing, know she will be able to meet the most exacting demands, and we congratulate the college upon securing such a teacher.

Mrs. B. F. Hudson was hostess of a dinner party last Friday evening at her handsome suburban home, the honoree being Mrs. G. C. Farris of Denver, Colorado, with Mrs. C. C. Brown, of Louisville, Mrs. Mabel Rutgers of Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. J. Rockwell Smith, Misses Martha and Helen Gill comprising the group about the festive board.

Mr. Gowen Bourne is a visitor in Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Hamilton were in Lexington Tuesday.

Mr. James B. Coker has been on a tour of eastern Kentucky.

Misses Kate and Lillian Kinnard were recent visitors in Danville.

Mrs. G. C. Farris and little sons are visiting Mrs. Alice Farris at Kirksville.

Miss Bella Arnold visited friends and relatives in Crab Orchard on last Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Haggardbotham went to Louisville Tuesday for a several days' sojourn.

Mrs. Samuel Haselden and Mrs. D. F. Walter were visitors in Danville on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. Ross Bastin and Miss Bessie Gulley were visitors in Danville on Tuesday.

Mrs. James B. Kinnard, and daughter, Miss Patsey Kinnard were visitors in Danville.

Rev. J. W. Bongle is engaged in a protracted meeting at his old home, Covington.

Mr. Russell Brown a Garrard Bank official, was in Stanford with his home folks Sunday.

Mrs. Mohie Pope has returned to her home here after a visit to Lincoln county relatives.

Mrs. Nockie McGrath, of Sharpsburg, is the guest of Mrs. C. A. Arnold of this county.

Philip Moynihan, the well known contractor of Richmond was in Lancaster this week on business.

Mrs. Calvin Nevins of near Crab Orchard has been on a visit to friends here at her former home.

Mrs. Arnold and children of Paris, have been the pleasant guests of her mother, Mrs. Boile Austin.

Mrs. Ebb Dickerson went to Louisville this week to attend the State Sunday School Convention.

Miss Sarah Daniels, instructor of music in the graded school is visiting relatives in Paris for the week.

Miss Catherine Bourne and Master J. W. Bourne are visiting friends and relatives in Danville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cotton and Miss Emma Walker were guests of friends in Harrodsburg Wednesday.

Mesdames J. Fleece Robinson, Henry D. Simpson and Robert T. Embry were visitors in Danville on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bob Henry are visiting Misses Bessie and Eunice Prather enroute to Cincinnati to reside.

Mr. John B. Bourne and wife were visitors on last Sunday of the former's brother, Mr. Everett Bourne at Sulpher Well.

Little Misses Bernice and Hazel Champ and Mary Davis are in Paint Lick for a several days visit to relatives.

Miss Bessie Gulley and Agnes Miles, of the county visited Miss Myrtle Hendren at Kirksville Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Katherine Simpson returned Monday from an extended visit to her friend Mrs. H. E. Thomas of Horse Cave Ky.

Mr. Banks Hudson of Danville was over for "Big Fall Fashion Day" and to see after his business establishment in this city.

Miss Mary Arnold went to Crab Orchard the first of the week where she will be engaged in the millinery business for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Robinson, and hand some little son, Frank Curtis made a several day's visit to Miss Elizabeth Lyne of Nicholasville.

Miss Mary Doty has been a recent visitor in Danville.

The Misses Smith of Berea are guests of Mr. William Lewis on Water street.

Miss Annie Herndon was in Danville Tuesday enjoying the fall display of merchandise.

Mrs. B. F. Robinson and sister, Miss Debra Tindler were shoppers in Danville Tuesday.

Mrs. W. O. Riggs, Mrs. Woodburn, and Miss Alice Riggs were Danville visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. C. H. Vanhook and children are at home after a visit to relatives in the Green River section.

Miss Virgie Conn, Mr. Jim Conn and son, Claud, of Wilmore, were here mingling with old old friends Sunday.

Miss Olive Dean, a member of the graded school faculty, has been indisposed much to regret of her friends.

Mrs. Henry Moore, Mrs. J. W. Bongle, Mrs. C. D. Tindall and Miss Jeanie Luckey enjoyed the day in Danville Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Rackwell Smith leaves shortly for a visit to her former home, Lebanon, where she will attend the annual festival.

Mr. H. Clay Sutton and Mrs. Clay Sutton contemplate a trip to Lexington the latter part of the week to see the famous dramatization, "Little Women" at the Ben Ali theater and to attend the Trots.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Haselden and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Haselden will compose auto parties visiting Lexington on Friday and Saturday to attend some of the famous dramas played in that city this week.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins are the proud parents of an eleven pound boy, christened Lee Oldham, who arrived last Friday in Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. Perkins was formerly, Miss Mary Kate Singleton, of this city.

Friends here at her former home are interested in the marriage of Mrs. Cora Ward West and Mr. Cone, an Arizona Insurance man, the wedding being solemnized Saturday at the residence of Mr. R. G. Ward in Cincinnati.

In renewing her subscription to the Central Record, Mrs. William Wall, so well remembered in this country, but now of Coffeyville, Kan. says that she has been our regular subscriber for twenty six years. We appreciate the kind words of her letter and wish she and Mr. Wall much success and many years of happiness in their western home.

Mrs. T. J. Curd of Williamsburg is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Conn.

Mr. Thos. P. King announces the marriage of his daughter Nellie to Sgt. Roland W. Cooke, on Saturday, Oct. the fourth.

Nineteen hundred and thirteen, At Home after Oct. tenth, 615 Kicapeo St., Leavenworth, Kansas.

Fresh Oysters.
Fresh oysters in the bulk; also good celery and fresh fruits of all kinds at Zimmer's.

New Line of Shapes and Styles in Millinery
FOR THIS WEEK.

Will also have another opening at my store in Crab Orchard, next Saturday, October 11th.

Miss Relia Arnold

Mrs

TRADE WITH US

AND

SAVE MONEY

Eventually You Will---Why Not Now.

The Store
Beautiful

HURT and ANDERSON

The bright Spot
in Lancaster.

FARMER'S COLUMN

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

(By Wm. F. Miller.)

Mrs. F. M. Tindler was a visitor at our school one day last week.

The parents are cordially invited to visit our school at least once a month.

Everyone enjoyed the exercises given by Miss Noland's room Friday morning.

Miss Robinson will visit her mother at Dampbellsville, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Johnson was a visitor at our school Friday and was present for Miss Noland's exercise.

Mrs. Alex Walker, and daughter Miss Virginia Pearl and Miss Effie Caneer were visitors at our school Friday.

Through an error last week, we failed to give Miss Mason's room, credit for much enjoyed entertainment last Friday.

Our boys are practicing hard every day and we will no doubt have a Foot Ball team of which all Lancaster people will be proud.

Prof. Caneer has given the hour every Friday morning for exercises by the different rooms. Everyone is cordially invited.

Miss Dean's room had the honor of giving the hour off Friday for most improvement in marching in and out of the building and to and from classes.

Mr. Caneer, Misses Robinson, Mason, Noland, Dean, Smith, Anderson and Brashears are in attendance at the Institute being held at Danville this week.

There are few counties shame that can be said, in Central Kentucky which are free from this pernicious evil, but it will not be the fault of Judge Benton if they continue to exist in his district.

We do not say that there has been election frauds in our neighboring county of Madison, but if there has, we will venture the assertion that there are some "politicians" up there who just now are experiencing the sensation of cold chills creeping along their spinal columns.

The feature of the game was the playing of Swope, Lawson, Acton and Givens for the Srs. and Herron and Bourne for Jrs.

Mr. R. E. McRoberts made a business trip to Louisville this week.

Mr. J. R. Mount is visiting friends this week in Lagrange and Louisville.

Mr. W. C. Sanders and sister, Coy, and Miss Lula Crutchfield, of Wilmore were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson Jr. Thursday.

Mrs. Emma Elkin and Mrs. J. S. Johnson, Jr. and little daughter, Anna C. were guests last week of the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary A. Sanders, at Coy.

The many friends of Mrs. J. A. Amon who is in the Norton Infirmary at Louisville, will be glad to know that she is improving rapidly and will be able to return home in a few days.

LOST: Cuff button monogram W. C. P. Return to Record Office.

Lost: Vest pocket memorandum book, either at Burton's sale or between the sale and Lancaster, on day of sale. Return to Record office or John M. Farra.

A WARNING WHICH MUST NOT GO UNHEEDED.

RHEUMATISM AND BRIGHT'S DISEASE Prof. Budlong Was Quickly Relieved Of Both Afflictions By Using Rhema.

If you suffer from any form of Rheumatism, remember that RHEUMA goes to work quickly to remove the cause, not simply to relieve the distress. Many years' use has demonstrated that it goes to the seat of the disease and expels the poisonous matter through the natural channels—the kidneys, bowels, liver and skin.

"For many years I was troubled with Rheumatism, also with Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I suffered awfully. Tried many advertised remedies. After using your truly remarkable preparation, RHEUMA, I was fully cured."—Prof. C. J. Budlong, SoundView, Conn.

RHEUMA is guaranteed by R. E. McRoberts & Son, who sells it for 50 cents a bottle.

L. E. Herron, Sup't.

HIGH PRICES

Predicted For Tobacco—Old Crop Practically Exhausted And New Crop Not Sufficient.

In a review of the tobacco situation E. T. Robards, of Lexington, tobacco expert and statistician, says manufacturers are confronted with conditions unknown in history of trade in half a century.

Widespread drought resulted in a short crop. He says that all of the stock of burley held by the Cincinnati and Louisville dealers will have been exhausted by January 1st, depriving the small manufacturer of his source of supply to a great extent. There is no old tobacco, he says, in the country and large manufacturers have only enough to run them for a year. His report includes the significant statement: "Beyond doubt the 1913 tobacco crop is from 50,000,000 to 75,000,000 short of absolute annual requirements, which will mean more strenuous efforts by large manufacturers to corner the available supply, resulting in the keenest competition and soaring of prices."

New Consolidated School At Buena Vista Began Operations Last Monday.

The Second In The County.

The handsome new Consolidated School Building at Buena Vista has been completed and the school opened on the last Monday morning. Because of the Institute is in session this week and all teachers are required to attend, it required the sanction of the State Superintendent to allow this school to be opened, which was readily granted because of the fact that the entire faculty had attended an institute in other counties this year. The opening of the school was delayed because of the inability to complete the building soon.

The people of the Buena Vista consolidated district have taken the initiative in the matter of providing means of transportation for the pupils who live at a distance from the school, taking a step which will doubtless be followed in the near future in other sections of the county. Some time ago they voted a tax for the purpose of defraying the cost of transportation of the pupils to and from school, but after purchasing four handsome closed wagons for this purpose they found the amount at their disposal would not be sufficient to defray the expense for more than half the term; they immediately called another election asking for an additional taxation of 25 cents upon the $100; the election was held on last Saturday and the citizens of that locality demonstrated their interest in the cause of education by voting the additional tax, having votes to spare over the necessary two thirds majority. We hope in the near future to run a cut of the edifice, the wagons, faculty and pupils.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The president of an electric company who lives near Libertyville, Ill., had an exhibition this year at the Lake county fair a display of vegetables that he had grown with the aid of electrical currents, which were sent through the soil by wires strung at intervals. The vegetables that are produced with this electrical stimulus are remarkably large and thrifty.

Some pretty good authorities on corn hold that the fact that an ear is not covered clear to the tip with kernels is no reason for discarding it for seed purposes, their contention being that the plant started out to produce a larger and more vigorous ear of corn than the soil and weather conditions prevailing permitted. This idea is not in accordance with the advice usually given as to selecting for seed ears only those that are filled with kernels to and over the tip, but there seems to be some reason in it nevertheless.

The "miracle" wheat, about which a good deal appeared in the papers a couple of years ago, is said by some who have been investigating the matter to have come originally from Egypt, it being taken from that country to Russia and thence to Alaska, whence it was brought to this country. One Oregon farmer who has been giving this wheat a test reports a yield of eighty-four bushels per acre, but he attributes this yield more largely to the character of the soil in which it was grown and the special care given it than any factor favoring of the miraculous. In this case the wheat was many headed and grew to a height of about five feet.

(This master must not be reprinted without special permission.)

Many farmers make the mistake of moving to town in their advanced years when they have accumulated a sufficient competence to guard them against the demands of the rainy day. Too often this move is accompanied by a radical change from much to practically no physical exercise, which has in many cases disastrous physical results. Added to this is the further fact that many such farmers, not realizing the cost of privileges which the town affords, are against any improvements which increase their taxes and as a result of this acquire a reputation of being fossils and tightwads because they do not like to see their taxes increasing and their quality being improved.

Nine times out of ten the pupil who causes most trouble in school is the one that runs wild at home—that is, has not been brought up to have a proper regard for parental authority and discipline.

It is fair to assume that any boy who prefers to stay at home and cultivate corn when there is a circus in town is cut out for a farmer and that it would be injudicious to coax him into taking up any other vocation.

Every farm should have its patch of ryegrass. This will not only furnish good late fall and early spring pasture for the hogs and cattle, but if plowed under in the spring will furnish a humus of which most soils are much in need.

Onions, potatoes and other root crops keep best in cellars in which the temperature is a few degrees above the freezing point. Squashes and cucumbers, however, will keep longer if they are put where it is dry and rather warm, a condition which is usually found in the pantry.

For the northern portion of the corn belt, where it is nippy and tucks to make a crop between spring and fall frosts, it is an important point to select for seed ears those that are low growing and early maturing. This means that the succeeding crop will be of this general character.

Cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The president of an electric company who lives near Libertyville, Ill., had an exhibition this year at the Lake county fair a display of vegetables that he had grown with the aid of electrical currents, which were sent through the soil by wires strung at intervals. The vegetables that are produced with this electrical stimulus are remarkably large and thrifty.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.

In estimating the returns from any given prospective enterprise it is well to cut the highest estimate in two. In this case the actual results will often exceed the more moderate expectations and satisfaction be felt, while if the returns are considerably less than the higher estimate there is sure to be disappointment.

The cowhorns turnips are not only valuable when plowed under as a green manure, but they bore down deep into the soil and tend to make it loose and friable. Furthermore, they make use of potash and phosphoric acid, which other plants cannot utilize, and thus their decay is useful to the soil.